To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my formal letter of recommendation for White Hutchinson Leisure & Learning Group, Inc. ("WHLLG"). I am developing and operating a new child development center in Kenosha, WI and engaged WHLLG in May of 2009 for various services that still continue today.

WHLLG's primary concern is assisting with the development of a high quality center that is both economically feasible for the owner and also offers the best environment for children. They understand the needs from both as a business owner and the children that will be attending the center. I continue to be impressed by their expertise, professionalism, and their network of professionals in the industry. The team they have assembled have many, many years of experience and have provided me with the direction that I very much needed. They work extremely hard and care very much about their client and the tasks they have been engaged to perform.

I would be happy to personally discuss my experience with WHLLG. I can be reached at 262-818-2903. As I continue to move towards completing and opening my child development center, I'm excited knowing I'll have a healthy, 1st class facility and credit WHLLG for their guidance and expertise they have provided me along the way.

Sincerely,

Todd Troha
